NATIONAL COMMISSIONER'S
THINKING DAY MESSAGE
22nd February 1970

Every new Thinking Day adds another year to the history of the Girl Guide Movement. 22nd February signifies a day of meditation, self-criticism and a step forward towards the achievement of our objectives. The success of our programme over the years, was largely due to its flexibility and ability to keep in step with the changing requirements of time. Now and then the Girl Guide programme was assessed and those items included that were in consonance with our national needs and aspirations. Such attempts were sporadic and it was felt that a comprehensive scientific survey was inevitable to study the changing needs of young girls and give them a programme that was challenging and able to build up in them traits of character that would enable them to meet their obligations to their community and contribute to national welfare.

The General Council of Pakistan Girl Guides Association, at its 22nd Annual Session held at Lahore in 1969, decided that "an extensive survey should be conducted in both wings of the country to study the needs and obligations of girls between 7—21 years; assess the existing programme in the light of these needs and revise it if necessary." An Advisory Committee comprising of experts in research was set-up at Lahore to assist the National Office in planning the research programme. On their suggestion a very successful Symposium was held at the national level on "Needs and Obligations of Girls Between 7—21 years." This symposium was the first step towards the direction of assessment and revision of the Girl Guide programme. It provided a common platform to young girls, as well as adult members of the country in both wings, to give their opinion and meet together for discussion. We were able to get some very good suggestions from them. At present we are working on the finalization of the questionnaire that will be administered to Girl Guides as well as to non-Guides. I hope you will cooperate with us when the interviewers visit your Company or Flock.

I particularly request the Guiders and Commissioners to assist in this very important task. I also would like you to tell your friends and colleagues about the Research programme of the Association so that if they happen to fall in the quota allocated to non-Guides they are already mentally prepared for it. We hope that when we meet together for the next Thinking Day I may be able to tell you something about the results of our research and about the new programme.

I also take this opportunity to congratulate you for the good work done by you in the field of Adult Literacy. I take immense pride in telling you that in September 1969, Pakistan Girl Guides Association was awarded a Medallion and Mention of Honour by the Jury of the Mohammed Reza Pahlavi Prize for Literacy. It certainly is a great honour for the Association and the credit for it goes to you all who worked so hard to make this project a success. I urge you to continue working on the "Each One Teach One" scheme so that young girls like you make their contribution to this project. I suggest to you to get in touch with the organizers of the Adult Literacy Centre near your home and offer your services for this very important national work.

You all know that one of the main aims of the Movement is to prepare girls to render service to the community and besides Adult-Literacy there are three other projects on which you may like to work, these are, Grow More Food, Better Homes and Dignity of Labour. Besides these Girl Guides in East Pakistan may also help with the special project of the Rehabilitation of the Socially Handicapped which is being carried on very successfully in the eastern wing. Opportunities of service are varied and many. Observation and willingness on your part can find you the service of your choice. Go ahead and do something! Do not wait to begin at the high level, the services of Guides are needed in every sphere and everywhere, in your home, in your community, and in your country.

Remember that for any service to be of real use one thing is inevitable, that is discipline. As events move on in the world today it becomes increasingly clear that if peace and understanding are to reign again we must prepare for the future and learn to have discipline in our lives. Unity and faith are the other two traits of character that will enable you to acquit your responsibilities to the best of your abilities.

There is another thing that I reiterate every year in my message to you that is the belief in, and practise of our Promise and Law. These set the standard of discipline and leadership expected of you, and never more than at the present time did we need to keep our aims and objectives clearly in sight. I wish each one of you "Good Guiding" during the year to come.

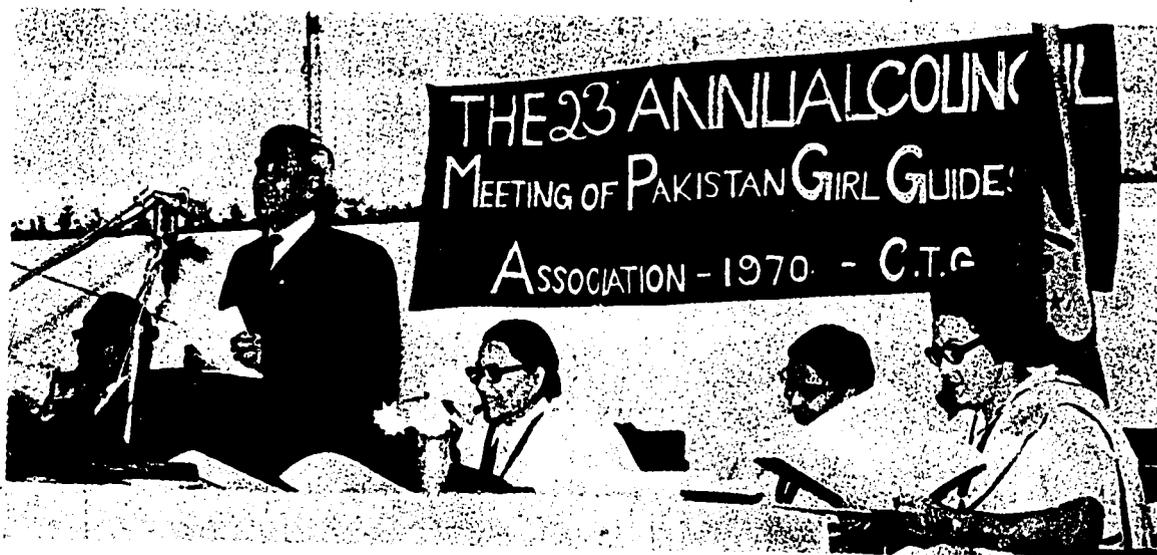

BEGUM G. A. KHAN
National Commissioner.

ANNUAL REPORT 1969-70

Another year has swiftly fled past and the following pages contain the highlights of our ever-broadening programme. Progress in our work has been steady and we can all be greatly encouraged by the continuing growth and expansion of our membership as well as the valuable contribution made by the Girl Guides all over the country in the field of community service.

The General Council of Pakistan Girl Guides Association met for its Twenty-third Annual Session at Nasirabad Government Girls High School, Chittagong from 14th to 16th January 1970. This meeting is one of the most important events of the year because it provides opportunities for policy makers and workers of both wings to get together at all Pakistan level to take stock of the past year's work, and chalk out the programme for the ensuing year. Forty-seven delegates and observers attended this. An outstanding feature of this year's meeting was that a contingent of twenty-six Commissioners and Committee members, representing all the areas of West Pakistan participated in the meeting.

The meeting was inaugurated on 14th January by Mr. Zakir Hussain, former Governor of East Pakistan. In his Inaugural Address, Mr. Zakir Hussain lauded the efforts of the Association in providing character forming activities to young girls. He paid tributes to the work being done by the Guides in the field of social service and said that Guides had made a significant contribution in promoting Adult Literacy. He especially commended their efforts for "Functional Literacy" and said that the pressing need of the time was the printing of sufficient and relevant literature for adult literates.

Begum G.A. Khan, National Commissioner, Pakistan Girl Guides Association, in her Address of Welcome to Mr. Zakir Hussain said that a major concern of all societies throughout recorded history has been the instruction and guidance of the young to prepare them for responsibilities of adult life. Young people of a nation have it within themselves to contribute significantly to the society in which they live. They comprise an important reserve of talent, energy and enthusiasm and if this is properly directed, can add not only to their own sense of responsible citizenship but also to their country's well-being and even to international understanding. The Girl Guide Movement in Pakistan is trying to meet this end.

Begum M.H. Sherazee, Provincial Commissioner, West Pakistan, Begum Tahira Kabir, Provincial Commissioner, East Pakistan, and Begum Amjad Ali, Karachi Commissioner presented brief reports of the activities of Girl Guides in West Pakistan, East Pakistan and Karachi respectively. All reports depicted that Guiding was making steady progress all over the country and many new projects were initiated and successfully carried out by the Girl Guides in both wings of the country.

TRAINING

It is very satisfying to note that an increased number of training courses have been held and efforts have been made to offer fundamental as well as specialized training all over the country. As usual, during the year great emphasis was laid on training of Guiders because it is the Guiders who have to work with the girls and train them on right lines. At present, there are thirty six trainers, posted in the various divisions of Pakistan. They extensively tour the districts, hold training weeks and camps and help the Commissioners and Guiders in maintaining a good standard of work. Trainers are also making efforts to start Ranger Companies and provide versatile activities for the girls of that age group in order that they continue to take active interest in Guiding.

A total number of 423 various types of training weeks were held and 13,810 Bluebirds, Guides, Rangers and Guiders attended these.

Guiders' Conference at Lahore.

During the year some latest methods of training were introduced in order to provide further opportunities to girls as well as adults to enable them to contribute more toward a better and varied programme. In West Pakistan, to judge the results of the training imparted to Patrol Leaders, one-day Conferences were held and these were organised by the Patrol Leaders themselves. A total of six such conferences were held in different divisions in which 204 Patrol Leaders participated. Ten Guiders Conferences were held at various towns at which the attendance was 297. At these Guiders' Conference Chairman and Speakers were selected amongst the Guiders and Commissioners and Trainers attended as observers. Topics relating to different aspects of Guiding were selected. These conferences have proved to be of great success and Guiders want more of these.

West Pakistan Branch has tried the experiment of Company Committees with the Headmistress as the Chairman, Guiders as Treasurer and Secretary and mothers as members. Now there are 26 such committees in Quetta, Lahore City, Rawalpindi and Sargodha. These committees, which are showing good results, have been formed to associate parents to take more interest in Guiding and help the Association.

Bluebird busy with their Proficiency Badge work.

Special trainings were held during vacations to help Bluebirds, Guides and Rangers to earn their Proficiency Badges. During the year several training weeks were arranged, especially during the vacations, in which 4,619 Bluebirds, Guides and Rangers attended and earned 25 different kinds of Proficiency Badges. The most popular badges were Cook, Needle woman, Laundress, First Aid, Sick Nurse and Hostess.

ALL PAKISTAN TRAINERS' REFRESHER COURSE

Another highlight of the training programme was that an All Pakistan Trainers Refresher Course was held at Guide House, Peshawar from 22nd October to 1st November, 1969. This course was inaugurated by Mr. Mohammad Hashim Khan, Vice-Chancellor, Peshawar University.

The theme of the Course was "To Meet Today's Challenge Through Knowledge and Understanding." Begum G.A. Khan, National Commissioner was present in Peshawar for the first two days. She addressed the trainers on the theme, Revision of the Guide Programme and Spirit of Guiding. Begum M. H. Sherazee, Provincial Commissioner also came to Peshawar for two days and addressed the trainers. Begum Sherazee, along with all the participants, visited the Adult Literacy Centres, Peshawar being run by the Association at Women's Jail, Civil Quarters and Bhana Mari.

Trainers with Begum M. H. Sherazee at All Pakistan Trainers Refresher Course.

Pakistan came from Rawalpindi to deliver a lecture on Civil Defence. Miss Jamila Jan of Home Economics College, Peshawar took a session on Nutrition. In the afternoon sessions trainers were divided into discussion groups, and they all discussed many important aspects of the programme and gave useful suggestions. The Closing Session was presided over by Mr. Raziur Rehman, Director of Education, Peshawar Region.

We are very grateful to Miss Najamuddin and her colleagues for making arrangements for the trainers to stay at Guide House, to contact the speakers, and the entertainment. Their help and co-operation went a long way in making this Refresher Course a great success. At the end the trainers were taken on a tour to see the Museum, Pakistan Academy for Rural Development, the University of Peshawar and University Town.

Outsiders speakers were invited to speak on various subjects. Mr. F. A. M. Tirmizi and Mr. M. Anwar from Pakistan Academy for Rural Development, Peshawar, spoke on "Human Relationship and Understanding of Each Other" and "Techniques and Methods of Social Research", respectively. Mr. S. A. Durani, Director Civil Defence, Government of

NATIONAL SYMPOSIUM ON "NEEDS AND OBLIGATIONS OF GIRLS 7-21 YEARS"

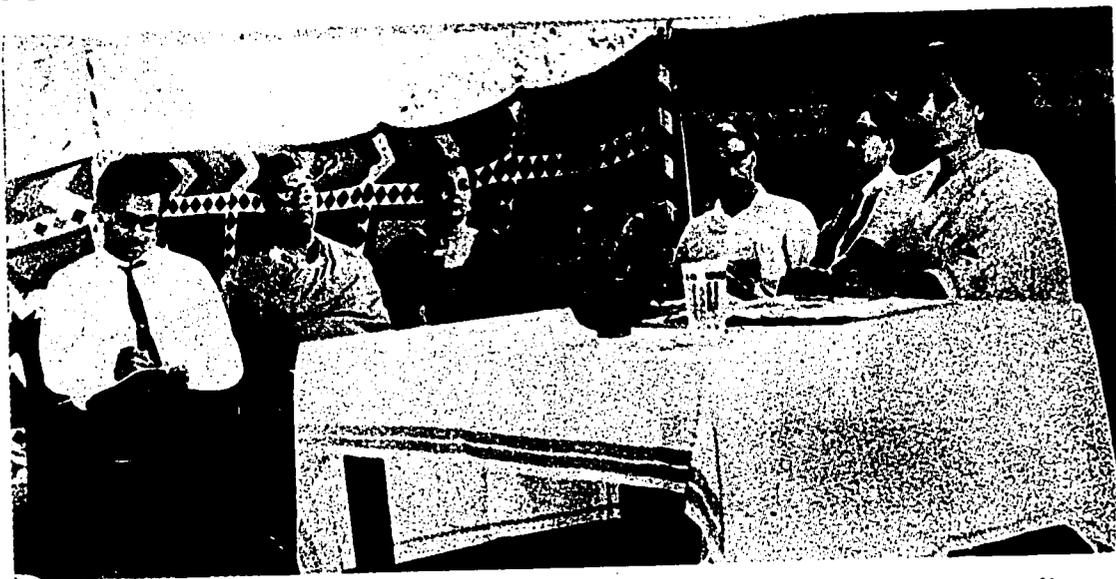

One of the highlight of the years programme was a National Symposium on "Needs and Obligations of Girls 7—21 years", organised at Lahore from 14th to 17th October, 1969. In this symposium Rangers, Guiders, College and University students and educationists from both wings participated. This symposium was the first step towards the research currently being undertaken to revise the Girl Guide Programme. In this symposium an attempt was made to provide a common platform to girls as well as adults to present their point of view on different aspects of the topics and later discuss these together in Discussion Groups.

The symposium was inaugurated by Mr. Shamsul Huq, Minister for Education and Scientific Research, Government of Pakistan on 14th October. The First Session was held on 15th and was presided over by Allama Allaudin Siddiqui, Vice Chancellor of University of Panjab. The Second Session was presided over by Dr. (Miss) Ali Mohammad, Principal, Lahore College for Women. Dr. Z.A. Hashmi, Secretary Education, Government of West Pakistan presided over the Closing Session on 17th when the reports of Discussion Groups were read.

Mr. Z. A. Hashmi, Education Secty., Govt. of West Pakistan addressing the Closing Session of the National Symposium on 17th Oct. 1969.

The topics covered a spectrum of needs and obligations of youth, ranging from economic, biological, religious, socio-cultural, psychological to aesthetic and recreational. Certain specialized topics like "Needs and Obligations of Handicapped Child", and "Factors Determining the Development of Social and Moral Values During Childhood and Adolescence" were also covered at length. Discussion Groups formed the most interesting part of the symposium when young and old amicably put their heads together to find solutions to the problems thus giving strength to our belief that young girls are alive to their obligations and adults are prepared to meet their needs, what is required is proper guidance and a satisfying programme. The reports of Discussion Groups provided an excellent material to the Association to frame its questionnaire for research and evaluation and plan the Guiding programme that is balanced and in accordance with the needs of young girls.

CAMPING

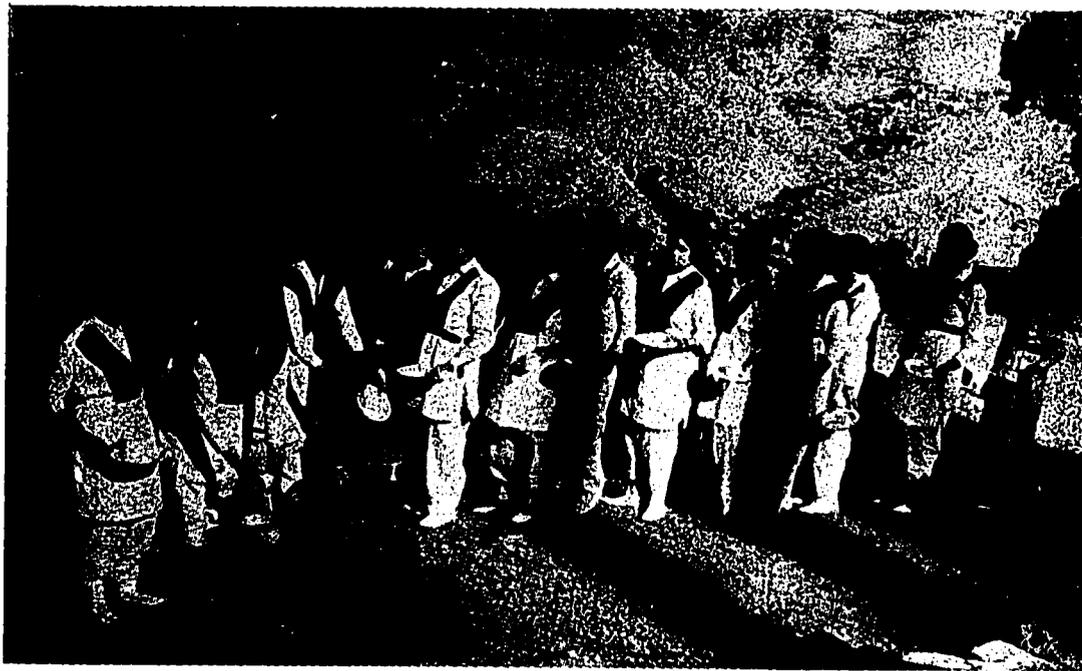

Girl Guides busy at Camp.

Camping is the occasion when Bluebird, Guides, and Rangers can show their achievements in the development of character, health, handicraft, leadership, and capacity and willingness for service.

The camping reports from the branches gives an interesting aspect of this programme. Various types of camps were held throughout the provinces which included Flock Holiday Camps, Day Camps, Under-canvas Company Camps, District Camps, Work Camps, and Service Camps. During the period under report the total number of camps held were, 1,752 and the participants were 37,115.

According to the decisions of the last Annual General Council mothers and sisters were invited to visit the camps and see the campers at work. They also attended campfire on the final day. In many cases the parents and other relatives extended help and co-operation during the camp. One of the aspects of Service Camps held in East Pakistan was that Senior Guides and Rangers, with some adult members, held these camps to do relief work to help the people affected by tornado.

Meal time at a Summer Camp.

Every year the Association tries to increase the number of camps to give more opportunities to girls to learn the practical aspect of Guiding. In camps girls put to practical use what they learn during their weekly meetings. Also in camp there are more opportunities for out-of-door activities, and woodcraft. Unfortunately we have not been successful in getting any permanent summer camp site so that permanent shelters could be put up and camps could be held throughout the summer vacations. There is a great demand for such camps and our Commissioners are trying to get suitable sites in their provinces where girls can have all the amenities and enjoy camps during summer holidays.

Another way to promote camping is to have more trainers and Guiders in the country who hold the Camper's License. Hence all trainers, and Guiders interested in camping, are given various duties in camps in order that they gain experience and are able to obtain their Campers' License.

SOCIAL SERVICE PROJECTS

The four permanent social service projects of the Association, namely Adult Literacy, Grow More Food, Better Homes and Dignity of Labour continued to be popular, and many of the members, both young and old, have participated in these directly or indirectly. These four projects were introduced to provide opportunities to young girls to put into practice their training as Guides for rendering service and "helping other people at all times."

An Adult Literacy Class in Dacca

ADULT LITERACY

The aim of this project is to spread literacy amongst women of Pakistan. This is done by opening Adult Literacy Centres, particularly for women of slum and rural areas, and also encouraging Guides to teach individuals under "Each One Teach One" scheme. Under these individual efforts Guides in West Pakistan taught 1,417 adults to read and write during the year. In our Adult Literacy Centres, under the present syllabus, the women not only learn to read, write and do simple arithmetic but also such items of Adult Education as religious knowledge, civics, basic hygiene, nutrition, child care etc. are included and disseminated through lessons, pictures, films and demonstrations. Now there are 95 Adult Literacy Centres in Pakistan, out of which 82 are in West Pakistan, 9 in East Pakistan, 3 in Karachi, and one in Islamabad. During the year the number of adults who attended these centres were :

East Pakistan = 122

West Pakistan = 1,912 : Out of these 737 passed the literacy test.

Karachi = 72 : Out of these 28 passed the literacy test.

In East Pakistan two more Centres were opened, one in Dacca and the other in Gopalpur. Generally the Guiders and Patrol Leaders are teachers at these Centres where they teach after attending trainings organised by the Association.

East Pakistan Branch of the Association also runs three Social Education Centres in Dacca for low income group children to impart school education upto the primary level. Total number of students attending these schools are 144. One former student has passed Matriculation Examination and is in college now. Four students of Guide House Centre have appeared for merit scholarship examination. One of the former Adult student, Mrs. Rokeya Khatun, is now running one Social Education Centre (Primary School) in Gulshan Colony at Dacca.

In West Pakistan 25 new Adult Literacy Centres have been opened, bringing the total to 82 centres. A "Functional Literacy" Centre has been opened in Public Health School, Lahore, for midwives trainees, and efforts are being made to open more likewise Functional Literacy Centres.

In Islamabad an Adult Literacy Centre has been opened at Central Government Girls Secondary School No. 7. Plans are going ahead to open a Community Centre there with the help of Central Government Social Welfare Association in order to have facilities for socio-economic projects like soap making, nawar weaving, making of macaroni, vegetable growing, their preservation, cloth printing etc.

PUBLICATIONS

East Pakistan Branch is fortunate in having the facilities of adequate literature specially written for the neo-literates from the Government Adult Education Department, Comilla. In West Pakistan no such facility exists, so to overcome this difficulty a Publication Cell for Adult Literacy has been set up under Miss K. Niazi, who has been trained abroad for this purpose under the UNESCO/World Association scheme, and special books in Urdu are being written and printed for adults at our National Headquarters. A series of three books have already been printed and will replace the Urdu School Primer being used at present in our Centres. Now follow-up books on the subjects of interest and usefulness to women are being written. An illustrated book for mid-wives has been written for our Functional Literacy Centre at health schools and hospitals.

Since October, 1968 West Pakistan Branch also brings out a quarterly magazine "IQRA" for adults which is distributed in the Centres regularly. A booklet on "Each One Teach One" was also prepared in Urdu by them and distributed to Guides during the Project Week in September 1969 giving them the guide-lines for teaching adults. East Pakistan Branch also prepared a small hand book for the Guides and Guiders on the Projects and Civil Defence in Bengali.

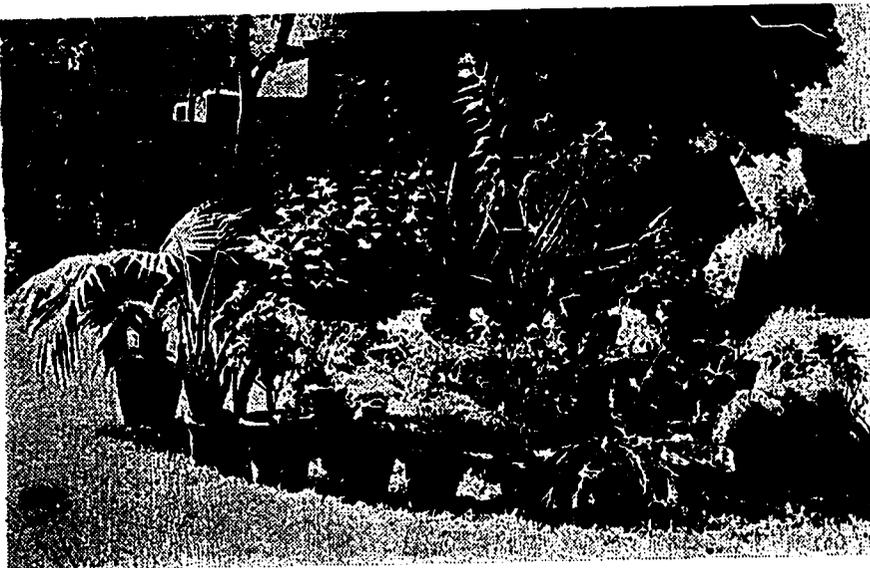

INTERNATIONAL LITERACY DAY

International Literacy Day was observed throughout Pakistan on 8th September 1969. Talks were delivered by dignitaries at the meetings held at Provincial Headquarters. In West Pakistan on this day, functions were arranged at the Adult Literacy Centres. The teachers read reports on the work done during the year. Certificates were distributed to the adults who had completed the syllabus, and commendation letters were given to the ladies who helped in the Centres. Prizes were also given to regular and hard working students. At Dacca Guide House a seminar was arranged on this day and the speakers were Miss K. Niazi, Dr. (Miss) Shafia Khatun, Mrs. T. Kabir, Mrs. A. Haq, and Mrs. M. Kabir.

GROW MORE FOOD

Under this project the Bluebirds and Guides are taught how to grow vegetables, by learning to prepare soil, use of manure, and sowing of seeds. They are also taught the preservation of foods, the value of balanced diet and not to waste food. 330

Flocks and Companies of West Pakistan, 10 of East Pakistan, some Guides of Karachi and Islamabad have grown their own vegetables or have learnt to preserve fruit and vegetables by dehydration, making of jam, chutney, pickle and squashes. Women attending the Adult Literacy Centres are also encouraged to grow their own vegetables and know about nutrition and balanced diet. At Karachi, after a break of three years, the Model Garden Scheme at Guide Headquarters has been revived and Mrs. Mooraj has taken over as Gardening Chairman. Vegetables grown are sent to Leper Colony, and orphanages.

DIGNITY OF LABOUR

417 Companies are carrying out this work and under this project 1,198 Work Camps were held in West Pakistan in which 27,954 girls participated. Nine Training Courses for Guides and Rangers and two special courses for teachers on Adult Education were arranged by East Pakistan Branch at different places. West Pakistan Branch held one course on provincial level for teachers of Adult Literacy Centres at Lahore.

Guides put up a Better Homes exhibition during Project Week, September 1969 at Guide House, Dacca.

Project Weeks: Last year during the Project Week special programmes were arranged at all Guide Houses and experts were invited to give talks and practical demonstrations. This year in West Pakistan greater stress was laid on Adult Literacy work. Each Guide, who participated in the Projects Week, had to teach one illiterate adult to read and write simple sentences, write their own name, do simple accounts and improve their religious knowledge. The Guides also selected a few homes near their schools and visited them every day of the week to help the women of the household in keeping their homes clean and decorating them with inexpensive home-made materials. They were also given information on how to keep their children healthy and cheerful. During this week Guides also learnt how to preserve food, how to start kitchen gardens, and the correct way to cook. They also learnt sewing, making of household articles, and home decoration. On the last day of the Project Week exhibition was held at Guide Houses to display articles made by the Guides during the week.

SERVICE CAMP

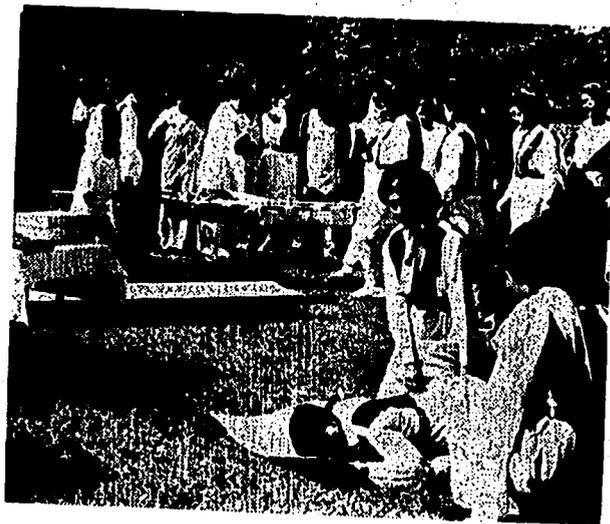

During the national emergencies like floods, cyclones and tornado Rangers and Guides collected relief goods for the affected people. In East Pakistan the Guides, Rangers, and other workers visited the areas of Nandipara, Tangail, Demra, Kotiadi, Comilla, Dacca Medical College Hospital, and Crippled Children's Centre to do relief work. They also helped in inoculating and vaccinating the people of these areas.

Thirty three Service Camps in the rural area were held in the divisions of Peshawar, Rawalpindi, Sargodha, Outer Lahore, and Bahawalpur. 1,113 Guiders and Senior Guides participated in these camps.

REHABILITATION PROGRAMME

In East Pakistan the workers of our Association closely collaborate with Society for Correction and Social Reclamation. Our members helped to rehabilitate 21 girls of Remand Home, Dacca and for the first time, arranged a wedding reception at Guide House in November 1969 for one of the inmates. The Guides of Kishorganj, Islamabad and Lahore have adopted families where the father has died and they try to help the widow and the children to learn a trade and earn their living. The younger children are helped to continue their education in schools.

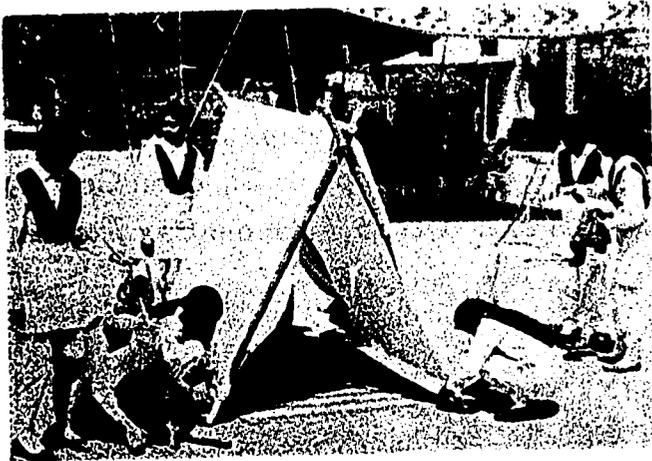

Guides of a Sialkot Company in West Pakistan have adopted beggar children and with the help of the Guider and the Headmistress they are attending classes and are given free books and uniforms.

RANGER REPORT

It is said that the youth of today all over the world present a complex problem to the adult world and they are generally considered unreliable and irresponsible. But the report of the Ranger work shows that these young girls have shown a high sense of character, responsibility and reliability in serving their community and the country. We are happy to know that these girls try to lead their lives according to their Promise and Law and set up a fine example of Guide training. Efforts are being made by the Association to promote Rangering and extend this facility to college students all over Pakistan.

Rangers putting up shelters.

East Pakistan : There are ten Ranger Companies, five in Dacca, two in Chittagong, and one each in Rajshahi, Rangpur and Dinajpur comprising of 245 Rangers. During the year the Headquarters arranged various training courses for Rangers and their Guiders at the above towns.

West Pakistan : During the year great efforts were made to open new Ranger Companies and now the number is ten, four in Lahore, and one each in Sheikhpura, Sialkot, Rawalpindi, Dera Ismail Khan, Multan and Quetta. Mrs. Hamid Jahan Khawaja, Principal of Government College for Women Bahawalpur, an old member of the Association, has inspired 500 students of her college to do social service and it is hoped that many of these will join Rangering.

Karachi : In Karachi there are three Ranger Companies with 108 Rangers, who are all very active. Here a special category of casual Ranger members has been introduced so as to retain the old Rangers of the Headquarters Company who cannot attend the meetings regularly as they are working, but are anxious to carry on with their social service projects.

The East Pakistan Rangers have appeared on the Dacca Television demonstrating certain activities of Guiding such as camping, gadget making, cooking, First Aid, to promote the image of Guiding. The Rangers have also been televised by Asian Television Service doing tornado relief work.

The Dacca Rangers also attended the inauguration of 5th All Pakistan Boy Scouts Jamboree at Mouchak, Dacca on 27th December 1969. This Jamboree was opened by the President of Pakistan.

Preparation have been going ahead to hold an All Pakistan Ranger's Convention in East Pakistan. All the Rangers are working with enthusiasm to make this a success. The Karachi Rangers have taken an active part in the preparation of topics. Miss Soonamai Rustomji was chosen as Chairman and they met in groups and worked on the theme "Radiate Happiness Through Leadership and Service," and prepared drafts of topics to be discussed at the Convention. The main discussion was to revolve round five main heads of Challenge, Leadership, Service, Image of Guiding through Communication and Happiness.

We are happy to note that the Rangers have thoroughly understood what Rangering means and they have carried out their duties and shouldered their responsibilities well.

INTERNATIONAL REPORT

The report about the international activities of our Association during the year 1969-70 is an interesting one.

Maria and Hamida, Girl Guides from Pakistan, photographed at camp in Australia

One of the exciting international event was the visit of two fifteen years old Guides, Maria Maud from West Pakistan and Hamida Bano Mumtaz from East Pakistan to Australia. They left Pakistan on 31st December, 1969 to participate in the Australian International Diamond Jubilee Camp. This visit was sponsored by Australian Girl Guides who paid for the travel and living expenses of these two Pakistani Guides by raising funds in their Councils. The camp was held at the Girl Guide property called Britannia Park, 45 miles from Melbourne, Victoria, from 6th January to 15th January 1970 and it was an under-canvas camp as January is mid-summer in Australia. Our two Guides enjoyed their visit and spent a busy time at the camp. Maria was selected to take part in the Opening Ceremony and Guides Own; while Hamida entertained the campers with her singing and dancing. The campers also took a keen interest in the exhibition of Pakistani handicrafts which they put on display at camp. At the end of the camp both the Guides enjoyed two weeks hospitality at private homes in the areas that had raised money for their fares.

Maria and Hamida stayed one day in Singapore on their way to Australia. They returned home on 6th February via Hongkong where they spent some time sight-seeing with the Hongkong Guides.

A number of international visitors were welcomed and entertained in Guide House and at private homes. Sir Godfrey Rhodes, a personal friend of Lord and Lady Baden-Powell and Vice-President of Boy Scout Association of Kenya, visited Guide House, Lahore in January 1969 to meet the National Commissioner and other members. He had brought the best wishes of Lady B.P. who was in Kenya at that time of the year.

Mrs. Richard Nixon, wife of President of U.S.A., and Hony. President of Girl Scouts of U.S.A., visited Lahore for a day on 2nd August 1969. Due to her short stay she could not attend any Guide function, however, a representative group of Girl Guides gave her a Guard of Honour and the National Commissioner presented her the Friendship Pin and literature of the Association when she visited West Pakistan Society for the Rehabilitation of the Disabled.

A view of the Thinking Day Rally at Guide House, Lahore

Miss Virginia Shipley, a U.S.A. trainer assigned to Afghanistan for a term of one year, visited Lahore in March, 1969. She visited a Bluebird Flock, and an Adult Literacy Centre. Later in September, 1969, she visited Islamabad Guide House site, attended a Committee meeting and also visited a Better Home and Grow More Food project of Guides of Government Girls Secondary School No. 1, at Islamabad.

In August 1969, Mr. John Pilgrim, a representative from UNICEF Regional Office, met the Executive Committee members at Guide House, Lahore and also visited the Adult Literacy Centre of Kutcha Habibullah Road.

Mrs. Chadwick, wife of the Director Commonwealth Foundation, paid a visit to Guide House on November 26th, 1969. She witnessed a demonstration on camping, projects and Proficiency Badge work, and saw Bluebirds at work.

Mrs. Eleanor Moninger, Visitor-Observer to Pakistan in 1961-62, and now Director of TOFS at Girl Scout National Headquarters, New York, came to Pakistan on a week's private visit while on way from Japan to West Germany. She was accompanied by her friend Miss Jean Hoff, a Girl Scout Trainer. They visited Karachi, Lahore, Rawalpindi, Islamabad, Peshawar and Swat.

During the year efforts were made to build up international pen friendship and thirty-four such links were made. Among the articles published in the Council Fire was Mrs. Selma Rahman's impressive account of the relief work done by East Pakistan Guides for the tornado victims. Another article about our social service projects was sent for publication to the World Bureau. Some of our books were sent, on request, to Girl Guides Headquarters, Lebanon.

Thinking day was celebrated by our branches all over Pakistan and Rallies were held at Guide Houses. Interesting items about international guiding were presented.

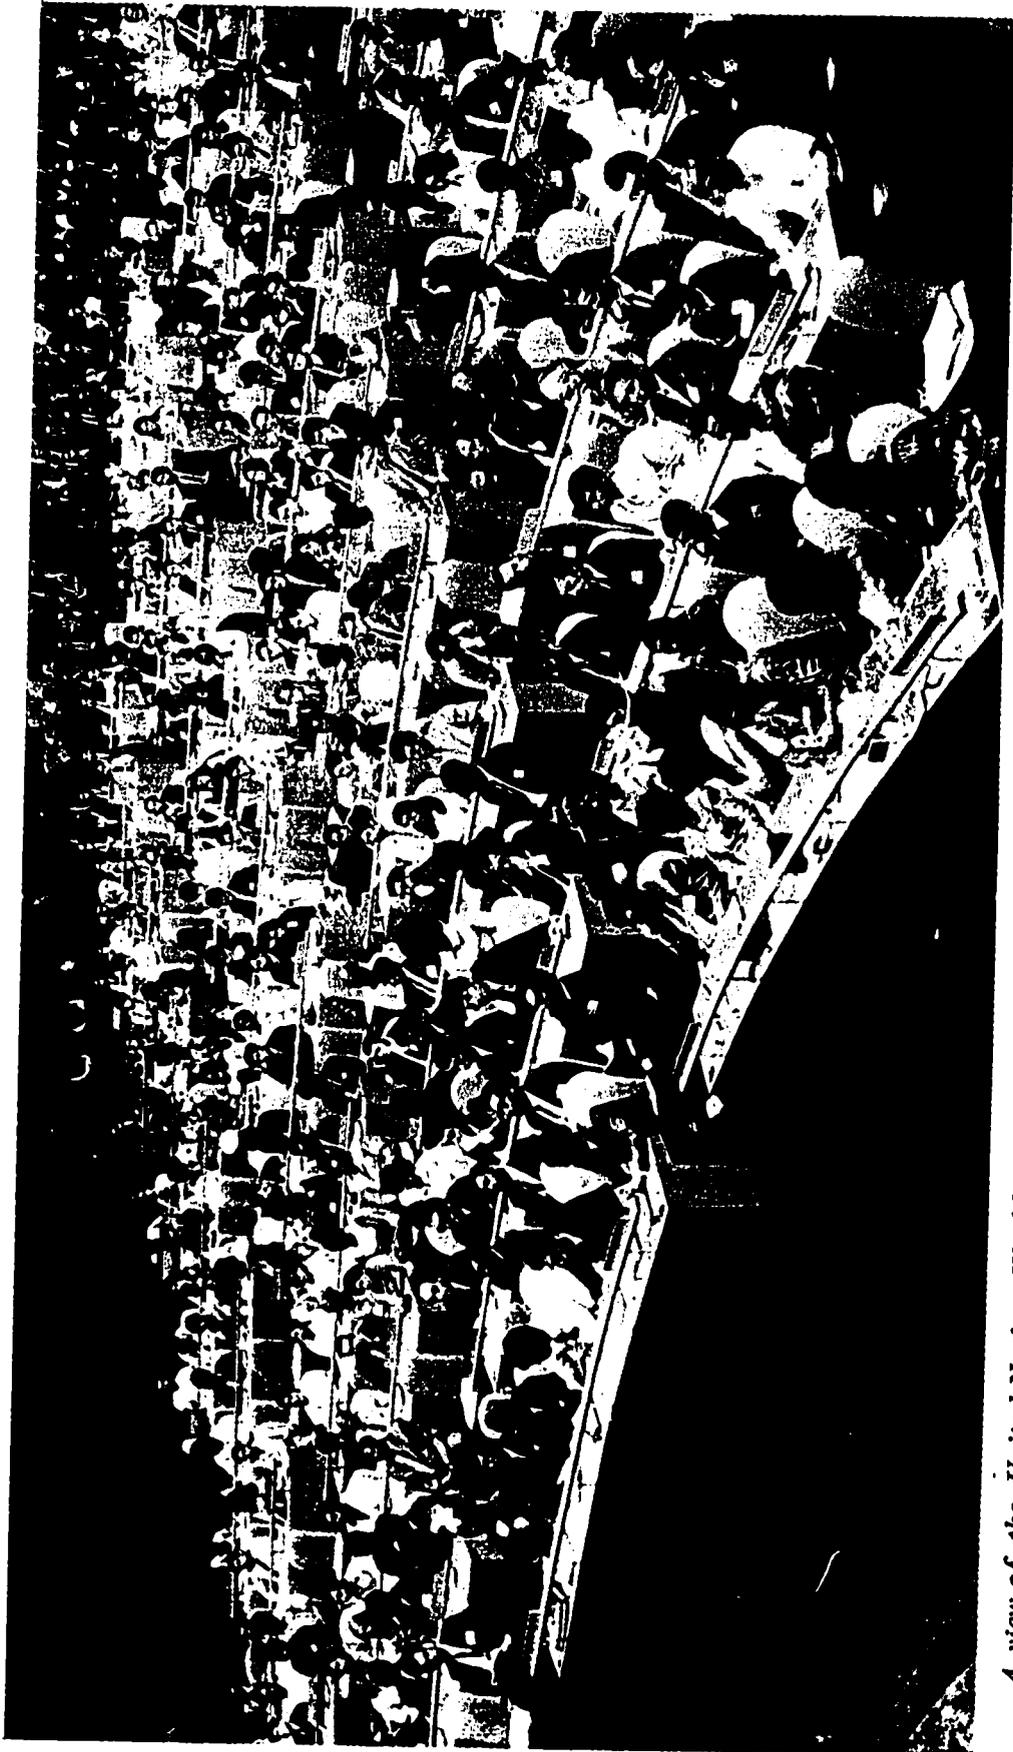

Begum Attiqur Rahman, wife of Governor West Pakistan addressing Thinking Day Rally at Lahore.

At Guide House Lahore an International Friendship Rally and a Fun Fair was held on February 27th, 1970. Begum Attiqur Rahman wife of the Governor West Pakistan was the Chief Guest. At the Rally besides the Girl Guide programme items were presented by the Girl Scouts TOFS, Iranian, America, French and German girls living in Lahore. A room was decorated by the Lahore International Women's Club.

Universal Children's day was celebrated by visit to Children's Wards in hospitals and toys, books, and sweets were distributed. East Pakistan Branch held a Baby Show on World Health Day, and Rangers visited various hospitals and Dacca Cripple Centre. A delegation of twenty hundred and fifty Guides and Rangers went to the Airport to greet the Guides and Rangers were invited to the Governor's House Reception for the visiting astronauts of Appollo 11.

UNITED NATIONS WORLD YOUTH ASSEMBLY

The most recent event of international importance was when Miss Shabiran Hayat, National Secretary, Publicity and Public Relations, and Miss Mahfooza Jehan, Rangers from Dacca, were selected to attend World Youth Assembly organised by United Nations at UN Headquarters, New York, from 7th to 17th July, 1970.
